Mrs. Dickinson, wife of the Secretary of War, went to New York yesterday morning for a few days' visit while Secretary Dickinson is in Chicago to attend a banquet to be given there this evening for the Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. MacVeagh, and himself. They will return here on Monday.

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop took a party to Mount Vernon yesterday on the Sylph, the government yacht, the Vice Admiral, I. J. N., and Baroness Uriup being the guests of honor. Luncheon was served on the return trip. The party reached the city about 6 o'clock. The guests included the Japanese Ambassador and Baroness Takahira, Attorney General Wickham, Postmaster General Hitchcock, Rear Admiral and Mrs. Cowles, Capt. H. B. Pelly, of the British navy, and Mrs. Pelly, who are visiting in Washington; Col. and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson, and Col. Haines.

The Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Beekman Winthrop will go to Baltimore this morning to be the weekend guests of ex-Gov. Carroll at his country place just outside of Baltimore.

The marriage of Miss Monica Smith, daughter of Rev. C. Ernest Smith, rector of St. Thomas' Church, in this city, to Mr. Joseph Egbert Williams, of North Carolina, will take place June 29 at Whitehall, the country place of Dr. and Mrs. Smith, at Aquanet, Prince George County, Md. This engagement was announced early in the week. Whitehall is kept open the year round. Dr. Smith and his wife or daughters going up several times each week throughout the winter and remaining there throughout the summer and fall.

Mr. Thomas M. Sherman, son of the Vice President, arrived in Washington last evening and joined his father for a weekend visit. Mrs. Richard Townsend, who will be detained in Washington until late this month by some proposed changes in her Massachusetts avenue home, will probably go abroad to one of the watering places for a short visit after July 1. She has taken the cottage known as "Colonial Hall," at Bar Harbor, instead of one at York Harbor, as York Harbor has been hoped. Miss Townsend will go to Bar Harbor in a fortnight or so to open this cottage, and remain there throughout the season. She will be accompanied by her mother's friend, Mrs. Huldecker, widow of Dr. Ralph Shippen Huldecker, who will spend the summer with her, and she will also have with her after July 1 her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Ronalds, the latter formerly Miss Thora Strong, who visited Miss Townsend frequently as a girl.

Mrs. Bromwell, wife of Col. Charles Sumner Bromwell, U. S. A., former superintendent of public buildings and grounds and former military aid to the President, has closed her Washington home and is spending the summer at Horace Dulin, on Thursday afternoon, July 17, at 4:30 o'clock, in the Mount Pleasant Congregational Church. The wedding was held in Washington because members of the bride's father are in this city to attend the graduation of Miss Carrie Canfield, a younger sister, at National Park Seminary.

Following the ceremony, C. A. Canfield, father of the bride, was host at a breakfast party at the New Willard Hotel. The party will remain in this city for several days.
